

Acceptable, Accessible Services

Activity – Case Study – Activity 2

Now consider these questions:

- What do you think are the outcomes for the service, the staff and the young people involved?
- What might be the long-term benefits for service users of these changes?
- Why do you think this way of working might be challenging?

Enter your responses in the spaces below.

1. What do you think are the outcomes for the service, the staff and the young people involved?

2. What might be the long-term benefits for service users of these changes?

3. Why do you think this way of working might be challenging?